

VIRGINIA'S GROWING SEASON

THIS TIME OF YEAR, something about that first fresh-picked basket of red strawberries satisfies so much more than our taste buds. It inspires us. If local strawberries are ripe, can juicy tomatoes and sweet corn be that far behind? And how about peppers, snap beans, summer squash and blueberries? They're all coming; the question is when. Let this chart give you a heads-up on the approximate harvest time of your favorites.
